It's fun until it isn't, which is stage 6 where the instant death things start to pile up to absurd amounts, making your life bar completely moot. Which is a shame, because it's right there, and definitely could've served a purpose.. This game is one of the best games it's like Contra and the lasers on stage 6 it's like mega man I love 8 bit games https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iZh7Uv_zDRI. Awesome Nes-Styled Retro Game, go check it out!. It's pretty fun, looks and sounds like an authentic 8-bit game but it's pretty damn easy. But for the price I'd still recommend for any fans of the good ol' NES. 100% Authentic.
100% Soul.

Nice job Dev.

Awesome Nes-Styled Retro Game, go check it out!. Would become best dude again.

11/10. This game captures the 8-bit style really well. A basic game even to 8-bit standards but quite enjoyable nonetheless. It's a run and gun side scroller without enemy pop-in.

Pros: Authentic 8-bit vibe, smooth gameplay, satisfying weapons, nice game flow and diverse levels.

Cons: 5 enemies being recycled for the entire game, short (~60 min), not challenging (including boss fights).

Pick this up if you are looking for some basic 8-bit nostalgia but look elsewhere if you want challenging gameplay.. Love these new retro games this game is all run and gun shoot em up bang bang!! yeaaaahhhh!!!. This is the best dollar I have ever spent. This game will provide you with hours of fun.. At first glance, Alien Splatter Redux may look like a generic pseudo-retro action-platformer. But fortunately, it isn't.

Like Oniken and Odallus: The Dark Call, Alien Splatter Redux is a simple, yet well executed game that would feel at home on the Famicom in the late 80's. I would call it a mix of Contra, Solbrain/Shatterhand and Gun-Dec/Vice: Project Doom, with the eventual nod to Ninja Gaiden 2 and Mega Man 2.

For the price, the game is a steal, and if you enjoy 8-bit action-platformers, do yourself a favor and play this game.
